SAUL: THE TRANSGRESSION OF FOOLISHNESS

(Part 18) By Sergio Scataglini

Last month, we began to take a candid look at what happens when we act in foolishness.

Based on the same actions we see in the story of King Saul, here are some modern examples of people who fall into the same foolishness.

1) Staying in the ministry at the cost of your soul; some ministers have moral failure and yet refuse to submit to discipline and a restoration process. They continue doing ministry as normal;

2) Growing your local church and losing your city. There is an unwise obsession with local church growth at the expense of the greater vision with other churches for the benefit of the entire city;

3) Fighting against others in the same kingdom Some people in ministry attack other denominations or movements no matter what they are, without finding out the facts first. This usually stems from envy and jealousy. Someone once wisely said,

“Do not criticize what God has blessed”

Remember the Word tells us that we will give an account for every foolish word we say;

4) Selling the revival for something worth far less, as we saw in Genesis 25:29-34; Esau sold the birthright for a plate of lentil soup.

5) Refusing to release a local worker for ministry because they are needed to further your ministry.

This is usually a sign of selfish ambition;

6) Returning to old religious habits. There are many denominations that have explored unity and living closer to the Holy Spirit, but then due to fear or mistakes of leaders in the new movement, they regressed to their old practices. This discredits the cause of revival and slows down the advance of the kingdom of God;

7) Having illusions of

Begin to Praise This Side of the Red Sea! By Kathleen Scataglini

Psalm 106

7 When our fathers were in Egypt, they gave no thought to your miracles; they did not remember your many kindnesses, and they rebelled by the sea, the Red Sea. . .

9 He rebuked the Red

Sea, and it dried up; he led them through the depths as through a desert. . . 12 Then they believed his promises and sang his praise.

This chapter and the following chapter begin with “Praise the Lord for He is good; His love endures forever.” (Ps 106) “Give thanks to the Lord for He is good, His love endures forever.” (Ps 107)

I know of a lot of Christians and ministries that are going through difficult times. As I read these chapters, it stirred up in me a desire to begin to PRAISE GOD THIS SIDE OF THE RED SEA, because we know that He is always faithful! □

Dear Pastor Sergio, it is in my heart to tell you of the big blessing I received from the book (The Fire of His Holiness) that I purchased on September 26 in the Breakthrough Conference of Buenos Aires in the church of Pastor Claudio Freidzon.

how I must act. Now I have peace and have gladness in my heart.

becoming someone we are not called to be;

8) Being a leader that does not lead; this entails neglect and irresponsibility;

9) Living in ministerial isolation (no fathers, no mentors and no friends); this is a dangerous and vulnerable spot to be in;

10) Putting the gifts of the spirit first and neglecting the fruit of the spirit.

The Bible says in Isaiah 35:8 that "there is a highway of holiness that the righteous walk in it, but wicked fools will not". This is a call to those who have committed acts of foolishness and not made peace with God.

Let us heed the warning given to us in Ephesians 5:17 which says, "Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord's will is." If you have fallen into foolishness which leads you into sin, I recommend that you follow these three steps to avoid it in the future:

- UNDERSTAND THAT THE ROOT OF FOOLISHNESS IS THE FEAR OF MAN;
- ACKNOWLEDGE FOOLISHNESS AS A SIN AND REPENT; AND
- PRIORITIZE WISDOM

There is no holiness without commitment wisdom. □
