How to Graduate in the School of Holiness Principle 3: Make it Your Goal to Become Like Jesus

Rev. Sergio Scataglini

Become like Jesus, nothing less. 1 John 2:6 says, "Whoever claims to live in Him must walk like Jesus walked."

How did Jesus walk on this earth? To start with, He was single. Now, some people say, "I'm going to be holy after I get married." I remember a friend in seminary who got married. After their honeymoon, we were working out together, and he said to me, "Sergio, I have learned something. Marriage doesn't cure lust." He went on, "I had pornographic habits before I got married; I thought once I was married, I would quit that stuff. But," he said, "The honeymoon is over and I'm back into pornography."

MARRIAGE DOES NOT CURE LUST

The Lord wants to embrace you and give you the holiness of Jesus Christ. Whoever claims to live in Him or remain in Him must walk like Jesus walked.

You are called to walk in the purity of Christ. If we would have said, "Jesus, could you stop for a minute so I can look into Your eyes?" We would have seen in Jesus the purity of Heaven. No X-rated movies would be found in His eyes. No internet pornography, no greed, no lust. He was absolutely pure.

That is the way we need to walk, in the most absolute purity. Friends, it is either total holiness or total repentance. There is not an in between.

Many of the revivals that have come in church history were revivals of radical holiness.

Now some people are scared of this message. They say, "Not again. No more finger pointing. No more aggression." I want you to know this has nothing to do with that. This is (continued, p.2)

C-Net News

April is a month of going after the "Lost Sheep". Every church has those who have come, visited and perhaps were even committed at one time. However, there are times when the pull of the world is so strong, that they wander away and get lost.

ComunioNet is no different. What do we do with those who are not yet "found"? We LOVE them, we seek them, we answer their questions and let them know that we care. There is a refuge from the world around us. Jesus put great emphasis on seeking that which got "lost".

We believe in showing that same LOVE and compassion to the members of ComunioNet. We have begun to feature a Cell Leader each week in our Prayer Guide, to strengthen them in this endeavor. To receive the prayer guide, sign up on our web site. □

Testimonies

The testimony of Brother Sergio has greatly impacted my life. Day by day I desire to live in holiness. Brother Sergio, you have been a great inspiration for my life!

Anasofia, Guatemala

* * *

I am writing to tell you that one year ago I bought your book "The Fire of His Holiness". It was a great blessing for my life. My testimony is that when I finished reading your book, I prayed in faith, as you said to do in the book. The presence of God flowed over me. Even as I write you, God is speaking to me about the baptism of fire that is coming, by faith. We love you in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Juan, California

I attended a breakthrough conference in Camp Hill, PA last year. During one of the altar calls I asked Carlos Annacondia to pray over a linen handkerchief I had with me.

I took it home and gave it to a Hispanic sister in my church who had a brain tumor. I instructed her to sleep on it at night. She did this and the tumor completely disappeared!

We then passed it to an older woman in the church who had cancer in different parts of her body. She was completely healed of the cancer! It is gone! We give all of the glory to God, but are thankful for the lives of His servants.

not legalism. This is an impartation of the holiness of Jesus that will break your heart.

Some pastors say, "Brother, how can I preach this radical holiness without becoming aggressive or judgmental?" My response is, "Preach holiness with a broken heart and with tears in your eyes. Then your people would see that you are not speaking out of pride, but you are a broken man or broken woman whom Jesus has sanctified."

It is the will of God that we all reach unity, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ. (Eph. 4:13) Matthew 5:48 says, "Be perfect. A person of integrity." and Ephesians 5:1 "Be imitators of God."

In our minds, friend, we have allowed a percentage of impurity. We are asking God to descend with His glory upon us. But God cannot dwell with iniquity. He cannot come and bless our immoral thoughts. He demands purity of the Body of Christ.

Friend, if you are going to be holy, the time is now. Let Jesus embrace you. Salvation is by faith, and so is sanctification. □
