How to Graduate in the School of Holiness Principle 4: Daydream about Reaching the Lost

Rev. Sergio Scataglini

Before you can graduation in the School of Holiness, there are basic principles that need to be followed. 1) Receive the Baptism of Fire. 2) Do something radical. 3) Become like Jesus. And 4) you must be focused on the Great Commission.

If you don't have a passion for the lost, if you just want to be holy and get better, your holiness becomes a self-centered holiness.

My dear friend, Ed Silviso said, "if holiness is the final goal, we should ask God to give us a heart attack and take us to Heaven. We will be holier there than anywhere else."

Holiness is not the final goal, it is the beginning.

HOLINESS IS NOT THE FINAL GOAL, IT IS THE BEGINNING

The Bible says in 1 Peter 2:9, you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, that you may declare the praises of Him Who called you out of darkness.

Why are we holy? So that we can declare the great character of God to this generation.

Decide today to let that holiness not only be a personal holiness, but let it be a power for you to reach thousands of people for Jesus Christ.

I believe God is raising up new ministries out fresh hearts. Some who were not in ministry will be. Some are not in ministry because they are bound to sin.

They don't want to preach, they don't want to teach, they don't want to be ushers, they don't want to be workers in the churches. They are scared to get too close to the things of God because they say, "I have an addiction, I have sin, I have evil habits."

C-Net News

We are excited for our first Men's and Women's weekend Encounters that we recently held. It is the first Encounter weekend that we did separately for the men and women.

An Encounter is a weekend where we take people to encounter Jesus in a new way. It is a time of being healed and set free from their past and to understand their new place in Christ.

We heard many excited testimonies from those who helped organize the Encounters and even more from those who attended of the great work that Jesus had done in their lives.

We are planning our second "cyber" baptism on June 4. We have people from both Argentina and the US who will be baptized that day.

Praise God for all He is doing!☐

Testimonies

I recently attended a Breakthrough Conference in Canada. During one of the meetings, Sergio was speaking about holiness. A fire began to burn within me as I was convicted of the habitual sin in my life. God spoke to me from Galatians 5:17.

I was shocked. God was saying to me that, because of these sins, I shall not inherit the kingdom of God. I began to repent of my immorality and right then, during the altar call, Sergio called for those in bondage to homosexuality. My heart began to break as I listened to him say that God is going to heal homosexuality right then. The shame of my sin almost kept me from coming forward, but then I thought, "There are four thousand people here, many of them are already at the altar for something else. Surely no one will notice if I go up". Reluctantly I got up and tried to sneak into the crowd at the altar.

Then Sergio said to come right to the very front of the crowd, just by the platform, in front of him. As I began to near, the power of the Holy Spirit became so strong that I could no longer stand. I made it to the front, just by the platform. But then the presence of the holiness of God became so strong that I fell to my knees and began to repent for my homosexuality.

I worshipped there at the platform as the Holy Spirit took away all the pain, loneliness, rejection and hurt left by my sin.

That day the Lord healed me and I am completely free from homosexuality. I now have such a passion for the fire of Gods holiness in my life. I am allowing the Holy Spirit to bring conviction in other areas. I am pressing in for 100% Holiness, so the Lord can use me how He desires.

But friend, when the Lord sets you free from that, your ministry begins to flourish. Everybody in the Body of Christ should have a ministry.

The doctrine of Holiness has two aspects: 1) Separated from evil and 2) Separated to serve God.

I called my father during the times of the revival in Argentina. Thousands of people were coming to Christ. I asked him, "Dad, what is the secret of this revival?" And my father said, "Availability. We made ourselves available to God." My father closed down the church for 6 months and the local Bible College. You know what it means for a church to be closed for 6 months without offerings. You really have to live by faith. But they sent everybody to the crusade with our dear friend Carlos Annacondia. Other churches joined and the power of God came. Within 6 months, 50,000 people came to Christ. Now churches were packed, overflowing with people.

God wants to do something extraordinary, but we need to make ourselves available. We need to daydream about reaching the lost.
